1. The majority of Bulgarian refugees in Yugoslavia are to be found in the following locations:
 - a. Jabel: About 50 refugees are located here, the majority engaged in agricultural work and a few as clerks in State-owned stores.
 - b. Becej: In the city itself there are about 25 refugees, for the most part younger children who escaped with their parents and are attending school. At the "Bratstvo Edinstvo" cooperative farm outside of town. are about 80 adult refugees engaged in agricultural work.
 - c. Voloscinovo: About 20 refugees are employed here as manual laborers.
 - d. Island of Bisevno: About 40 emigrants are employed as laborers on this island.
 - e. Pastuvscia RR station (?): Twenty Bulgarians are employed as laborers.
 - f. Belgrade: About 25 Bulgarians, mostly students, are located here.
 - g. Nis and Zajecar: In these two cities and in the small villages between them there are approximately 200 Bulgarians, for the most part single men employed as laborers.
 - h. Jesenice: About 150 refugees, some of whom may have fled to Austria since the time when this information was obtained.
2. Other Bulgarian refugees, who are scattered around Yugoslavia alone or in groups of less than four, do not number over 200 in all.
